The NJ Highlands coalition is proud to announce the NJ Highlands Brewfest at Boonton.

This craft beer and music festival will take place on September 7, 2019 at Canal Side Park in Boonton, starting at 1:00 PM.

The event boasts dozens of brewers pouring over 75 brews to sample, featuring local brewers as well as national favorites including Ramstein, Cricket Hill, Carton and Czigmeister, all hailing from NJ.

In addition to the craft beer experience, the event features live music, yard games and local vendors selling merchandise and food. Our three bands this year include Hollowpoint, a hard hitting quartet that delivers an entertaining show and great original music, and Lady Marmalade, one of New Jersey's hottest bands.

According to Julia Somers, Executive Director of the New Jersey Highlands Coalition, "We are really excited to be able to continue the fine tradition of this Brewfest first offered by Boonton Main Street. At the Coalition, we miss the festivals we ran at Waterloo. The NJ Highlands Brewfest at Boonton will be a great pick up from those fun days and a wonderful way to feature one of the Highlands most important resources, its water. After all, you can't make great beer without great water! 6.2 million of New Jersey's residents receive some or all of their water from the NJ Highlands – that's 70% of the folk who live in this beautiful state!"

Tickets will be going on sale on June 7th. Don't miss the early bird discounted rate!
